Bharatiya Prajagala Kalyan Paksha

Report on the audit of the financial statements

We have audited the accompanying financial statements of Bharatiya Prajagala Kalyan Paksha ("the party"), which comprise the balance sheet as at March 31, 2020, and the Statement of Income and Expenditure for the year then ended, and Statement of Receipts and Payments and notes to the financial statements.

Management's responsibility for the financial statements

The Board of members are responsible for the matters in respect to the preparation of these financial statements that give a true and fair view of the financial position, financial performance and cash flows of the Party in accordance with the accounting principles generally accepted in India, including the accounting standards as prescribed by the ICAI. This responsibility also includes maintenance of adequate accounting records in accordance with the provisions of the Act for safeguarding of the assets of the Party and for preventing and detecting frauds and other irregularities; selection and application of appropriate accounting policies; making judgments and estimates that are reasonable and prudent; and design, implementation and maintenance of adequate internal financial controls, that were operating effectively for ensuring the accuracy and completeness of the accounting records, relevant to the preparation and presentation of the financial statement that give a true and fair view and are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditor's responsibilities for the audit of the financial statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with SAs will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these financial statements.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgement, including the assessment of the risks of materials misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal financial control relevant to the trust's preparation of the financials that give true and fair view in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of the accounting estimates made by the members /executive committee, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion on the financial statements.

Opinion

In our opinion and to the best of our information and according to the explanations given to us, the aforesaid financial statements give the relevant information and give a true and fair view in conformity with the accounting principles generally accepted in India subject to the following observations:

- The Party has not been complied with the provisions of the Income tax Act, 1961. and
- The Party has not maintained separate registers for the Donations receipts along with the donor's name, address and PAN.

ELECTION COMMISSION OF INDIA

Nirvachan Sadan, Ashoka Road, New Delhi-110001

No.76/PPEMS/Transparency/2013

Dated 29th August, 2014

To

1. The President/General Secretary of all Political parties.
2. The Treasurer of all Political parties.

Subject: Guidelines on transparency and accountability in party funds and election expenditure matter – regarding.

Sir/Madam,

Under Article 324 of the Constitution, Election Commission of India is vested with the responsibility to conduct free and fair elections. Concerns have been expressed in various quarters that money power is disturbing the level playing field and vitiating the purity of elections. To curb the abuse of money power during elections, the Election Commission has issued several instructions in the past to the candidates and political parties from time to time.

2. It is desirable for the political parties to observe transparency and accountability in respect of funds raised and expenditure incurred, both during elections and in other times. Further, in the interest of conduct of free and fair elections it is necessary and expedient to provide guidelines for bringing transparency and accountability with regard to fund of political parties.
3. In order to formulate the guidelines, the Commission sought comment/suggestions/inputs from all recognized political parties. While most of these parties supported the issue of transparency guidelines, some other had a different view. Having regard to the suggestions received from the political parties and in the interest of purity of election process, the Commission hereby issues the following guidelines under Article 324 of the Constitution, to bring transparency and accountability in funding of political parties: -

- (i) Provision (a) to Section 13A of Income Tax Act 1961, inter-alia, provides that political party shall keep and maintain such books of accounts and other documents as would enable proper deduction of its income there from. Accordingly, it is required that (a) the treasurer of the political party or such person as authorized by the party, besides ensuring maintenance of the accounts at all State and lower levels, shall maintain consolidated accounts at the central party Head Quarters as required under the aforesaid provision, (b) the accounts so maintained by him/her shall conform to
